

Name: - Kirandeep Kaur
Designation: - Professor
Department of Education & C.S,
Punjabi University, Patiala.

Additional Charge Director, Constituent Colleges,
Punjabi Univesity, Patiala

Address: - # 14-B, Punjabi Bagh, Patiala
147001, Punjab, Patiala, INDIA.
Mob. No. +91-9888731585

Qualification: - M.A, M.Phil., Ph.D. (Education)
Teaching experience: 32 years (At Postgraduate level)
Areas Of Research : Educational Philosophy and Sociology,Positive
Psychology, Teacher Education

Presently, serving as Professor in the department of education and community service and having an additional charge of Director, Constituent colleges, Punjabi University, Patiala. Published 4 books for undergraduate and postgraduate students of education and 45 research papers in National and International journals. Presented papers and also delivered key note addresses in various National as well as International Conferences in India as well as abroad. Member of various National and International Professional bodies in the field of education such as Psycho-Linguistics Association of India, Indian Psychometric & Educational Research Association, Praachi Psycho –Cultural Research Association, All India Association for Educational Research, Indian Adult Education Association, International Professional Development Association and member of editorial board of two national and two international journals. Presently working on a U.G.C. sponsored Major research project titled “Effect of Life Skills training on psychological capital and attitude of Punjabi youth towards alcohol and drug abuse.” Performed the duties of coordinator , co-coordinator for M.Ed and B.Ed state level entrance exams, member of Board of Studies of Education and Physical education in parent as well as neighbouring universities. Have been nominated as an expert on different panels and selection committees of various universities, as well as state commissions, member of NAAC and NCTE (National Council for Teacher Education). Visited China, Singapore, Bangkok, Europe, U.S. and Canada for various academic purposes. Visited China as a member of Indian delegation of School Education . Have been instrumental in organizing various National and International Conferences, workshops and seminars in the parent department. Received International ‘Desh Sewa Rattan Award (2005)’ and ‘Best Citizens Of India Award (2010)’. 14 students have completed their Doctorate degree and 15 are pursuing their doctoral research including M.Phil under my guidance.