Area of Specialization

Forensic Analytical Chemistry & Criminalistics

Research Activities:

R&D collaborations

Collaborating with Central Forensic Science Laboratory, Chandigarh, a Center of Excellence in Forensic Physical sciences on Emerging Areas of Forensic Science.

Active in Advancing Forensic Science as a Tool Against Terrorism.

Supervised following Research Projects in the Frontier areas of Forensic Science for doctoral work.

Some Analytical Studies of Heroin Samples Encountered in Forensic Cases, 1996

Studies in the Evaluation of Detective Chemicals in Forensic Cases, 2002

Characterization of RDX in Explosive Formulations and Residues by Chromatography and Spectroscopy 2003

Speaker Identification Based on Acoustic Features of Speech Sound in Telephonic Conversation for Forensic Applications 2005

Effect of the Recording Devices on Speech Signal for Speaker Identification, 2006

Study of Acoustic Characteristics Based on Phonetic Features in Some Dialects of Hindi for Forensic Speaker Identification 2006

Characterization of Noise Associated with Forensic Speech Samples for Speech Recognition and Speaker Identification 2009

Heading a strong research group working on following research problems:

Some analytical Studies in the Evaluation of Arson Residue

Studies on the Thermal Stability of Explosives in the Presence of Some Organic Acids, Basis and Ions

Characterization and Quantification of some Heavy Toxic Metals in Ayurvedic Formulations

Spectrographic and Automatic Analyses of Speech Samples Recorded in Forensic Contexts

Administrative Responsibilities:

January 2018 - Till Date

Dean (Faculty of Physical Sciences), Punjabi University, Patiala, India

January 2016 – January 03rd 2018

Associate Dean (Research), Punjabi University, Patiala, India

August 2004-September 2007

Chairman, Department of Forensic Science, Punjabi University, Patiala, India

Chairman of the Organizing Committee

April 4-8th 2005

National Workshop on Forensic Facial Reconstruction

August 11-13th 2006

National Symposium on Cyber Forensics and Computer Crimes.

May 2006 – May 2008

Provost of the University

May 2006 – July 2006

Director, Public Relations

June 2002 – May 2006

Senior Warden, Boys Hostels

September 1997 – June 1999

Warden, Boys Hostel

Academic Positions:

July 2006 – Present

Professor of Forensic Science, Punjabi University, Patiala

July 1998-July 2006

Assoc. Professor of Forensic Science, Punjabi University, Patiala

January 1988- July 1998

Asst. Professor of Forensic Science, Punjabi University, Patiala

March 1984 – December 1987

Research fellow in Forensic Science, Punjabi University, Patiala Under Bureau of Police Research & Development, Ministry of Home, Government of India, New Delhi

Honors and Awards:

Member Explosives Standards Working Group (ESWG), US Department of Homeland Security.

Guest Faculty 1. Maharaja Ranjit Singh Punjab Police Academy, Phillaur

2. Punjab Police Commando Training Center, Fort Bahadurgarh. Patiala

➤ Regularly delivering special lectures to Police Officers on Specialized topics namely:

- International trends in terrorism – Role of Forensic Experts
- Threat to VIP's from IEDs and other modes of Mass destruction available with terrorists and use of new scientific methods in the detection and neutralization of these devices.
 - Changing Trends In IED.
 - Advances in Forensic Science/ Forensic medicine and its role in crime investigation.

➤ Invited speaker

- Australian Bomb Data Center, Annual Conference, 17-19 November 2010, Canberra, Australia

- International Symposium on Analysis and Detection of Explosives, 22-25 November, 2010, Canberra, Australia

- Best Paper Award by Medico legal Society of India
