

Dr. Parneet Kaur Dhillon
Assistant Professor

Dr. Parneet Kaur Dhillon is an Assistant Professor in the Department of History. She did her B.A., M.A.(History)(Gold Medalist) from Punjabi University , Patiala . She is NET JRF. She has done her Ph.D on “ Women in Colonial Punjab (1901-47)”.

She has 10 years of teaching and research experience. Her areas of interest comprise History of Modern India/Punjab and Gender Studies. She has presented and published 20 research papers in various national and international journals and Proceedings of prominence. She has been an organizing secretary of the South Asian History Conference organized by the Department of History and also the member of the editorial board of Proceedings of South Asian History Conference. She has guided 5 M.Phil students and 6 students are pursuing Ph.D under her guidance.

She has delivered extension lectures and has been invited as a resource person for National seminars and conferences in various colleges and universities. She is a member of academic and administrative bodies of the department as well as of the university. Recently she attended a workshop on BhaiVir Singh (1872-1957): Rethinking Literary Modernity in Colonial Punjab organized by the Department of Asian Studies, University of British Columbia, Canada and presented a research paper jointly with Dr. Jaspal Kaur Dhanju. She also attended an international conference organized by Shaheed Udham Singh Memorial Foundation of North America in Sacramento, USA in July 2017.