PUNJAB HISTORY CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

These volumes include papers read at the conference held every year at the Punjabi University Campus.

Its first session was held in 1965. It has completed thirty nine years of its service and has since published several volumes which have assumed significant place in the academic life of the scholars relating to Punjab History.

The purpose of these conferences are to unravel hitherto explore untouched areas of reasearch of this region i.e. Punjab. For this reason the proceedings have gained eminence throughout India.

Large number of distinguished scholars participate in the conference and research papers are read on various aspects of the Punjab History. The proceedings of the conference are published afterwards. It has attracted many a new scholars from all over the country for its study and it is hoped that their researches will bring to light new information and the socio-economic and religio-political life of the people of the country during the ancient, medieval and modern periods of our regional history.
