It is a matter of immense pleasure and happiness that Punjabi University, Patiala's Department of Development of Punjabi Language is going to organize its 34th International Punjabi Development Conference on February 11 to 13, 2019. This three day conference is dedicated to 550th birth anniversary of our great guru- Guru Nanak Dev Ji. Its theme is 'The relevance and importance of Guru Nanak in present day context with reference to literature, language, culture and Philosophy. The motive of this conference is to re-read and rethink about the life and philosophy of Guru Nanak in this era of modernization and globalization. He was such a great saint and philosopher whose life and teachings have a deep impact over the centuries. Thus to identify and define the multidimensional aspects of his thinking and ideology will be the main focus of this conference.

It will be a great and high time for the Punjabi University, Patiala if you join us on this great occassion on Feb 11 to 13. Your presence will be a great importance and meaningful for us. You will be our honorable guest during the conference.

Yours sincerely-

Yograj (Dr.)
