The Department of Law, which was established in 1965, has played a significant role in providing legal education in the region. A large number of judicial officers in the State of Punjab and Haryana are former students of this Department. The Department runs three-year LL.B. course in the morning and evening shifts apart from running LL.M (Two Year Course) in morning and LL.M. (One Year Course) in evening shift and providing research facilities for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.). The students of LL.B. are trained in practical work by engaging them in moot courts and attaching them with practising lawyers for their internship.

The visits to the courts to watch the law in action is an integral part of their syllabi. The endeavour of the department is to impart knowledge in various aspects of law. To keep pace with the present times the syllabi are continuously being updated and new areas like Human Rights, Environmental Law, Cyber Law, Business Law, Intellectual Property, Right to Information, Right to Services etc. have been introduced. The major areas of thrust in research are criminal law, constitutional law, international law, business law and family law. Property Law has been included for studies. The vision of the law department is to make legal education as instrument of social, political and economic changes. The department is committed to preparing lawyers who will not only be professionally competent, technically sound and socially relevant, to enter the Bar and Bench but also be equipped with addressing the imperatives of the new world and uphold the rule of law. The department has state of the arts infrastructure and talent facilities for learning and research at its Punjabi University campus.

Punjabi University, Patiala has established Punjab School of Law at its campus. The Punjab School of Law admits 60 students in its Five-Year B.A. L.L.B. Degree Course through Centralized Online Counselling on the basis of marks obtained in 10+2 examination. This course is open for admission to the students who have passed 10+2 examination, as per prescribed eligibility conditions.

Establishment of Punjab School of Law is the result of visionary idea conceived by University management. In view of globalization and liberalization of economic policies, there is great demand on the legal profession to be able to provide competent legal services of the highest order in diverse fields. In the present scenario, significance of legal education is not limited to dispute resolution, but it also extends to its application for growth and development of society. There is also a need to develop responsive attitude and sensitiveness towards law to achieve all-round growth and secure ends of justice.

The Punjab School of Law lays emphasis on both teaching as well as training the students in the legal profession. The school has adopted the methodology of intensive and extensive class room teaching, involving active participation of the students. This is supplemented by clinical legal work like, participation in seminars, working on assigned projects, client counseling, brief preparation, moot court presentation, court visits etc. The objective of the course is to enable the students to join legal profession as lawyers, prosecutors, law firms, organisations or to compete for civil services. The Punjab School of Law is committed to recruit highly qualified and best suited faculty for imparting legal education to its students.
